A 1948 TATLER PRODUCTION

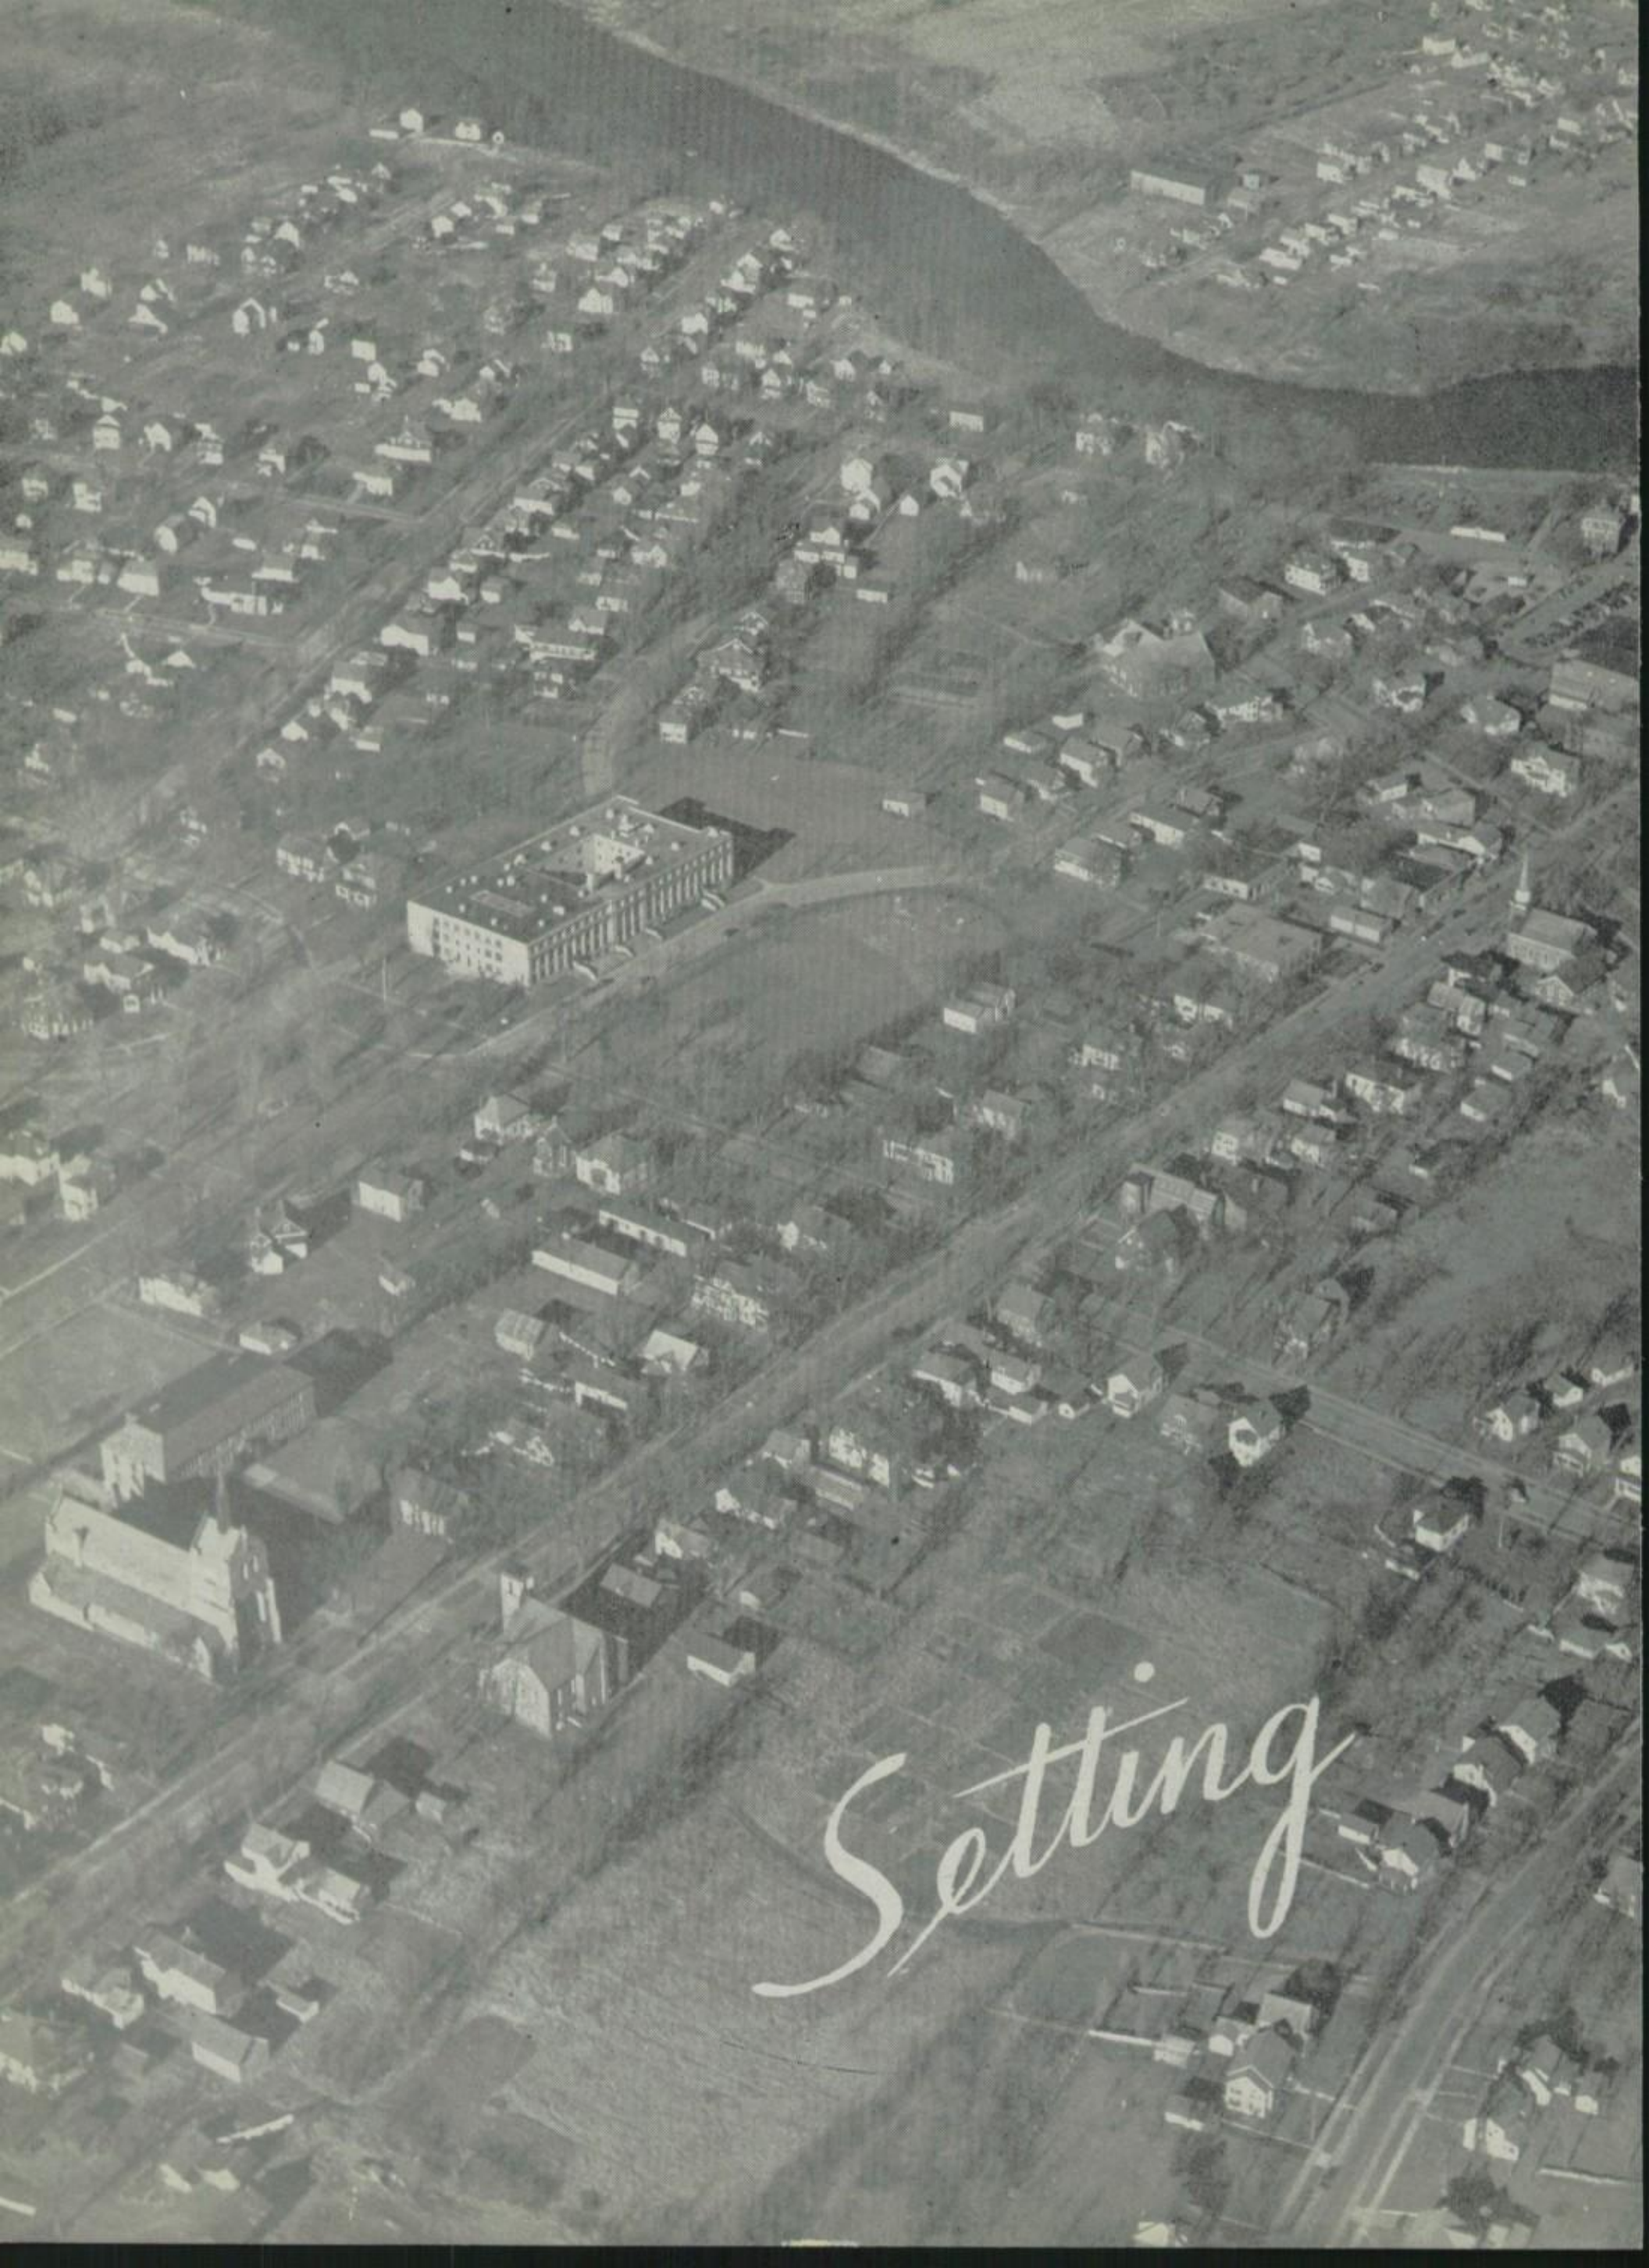

As We Like Them . . .

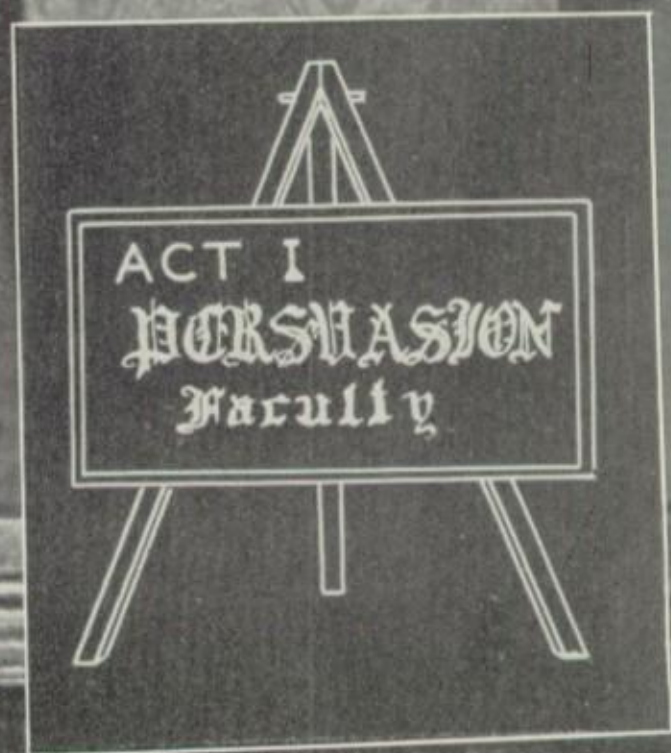

First Row: Mr. Hugh Perkins, Mr. Wayne Cardy, Miss Grace Farley, Mr. Wesley Ehle, Mr. Robert Calnon. Second Row: Mr. Charles Robb, Mr. Harry Butler, Mr. Harley Scott, Mr. Samuel Hammerstrom.

The Class of 1946 dedicates this yearbook to those members of the faculty who have returned to Massena High School from the many war theaters.

There are no words whereby we may adequately express our appreciation to you; therefore, we offer with pride and gratitude the dedication of this, the 1946 Tatler to you, the veterans of World War II.

Our Directors

MR. WALTER L. WILSON

Graduation rings down the curtain on the high school education of the Class of 1946. Your critics have passed judgment and the 160-week run of your production is over. Critics you will always have; keep their reports good by keeping your own reliance on truth, virtue and on God unfaltering.

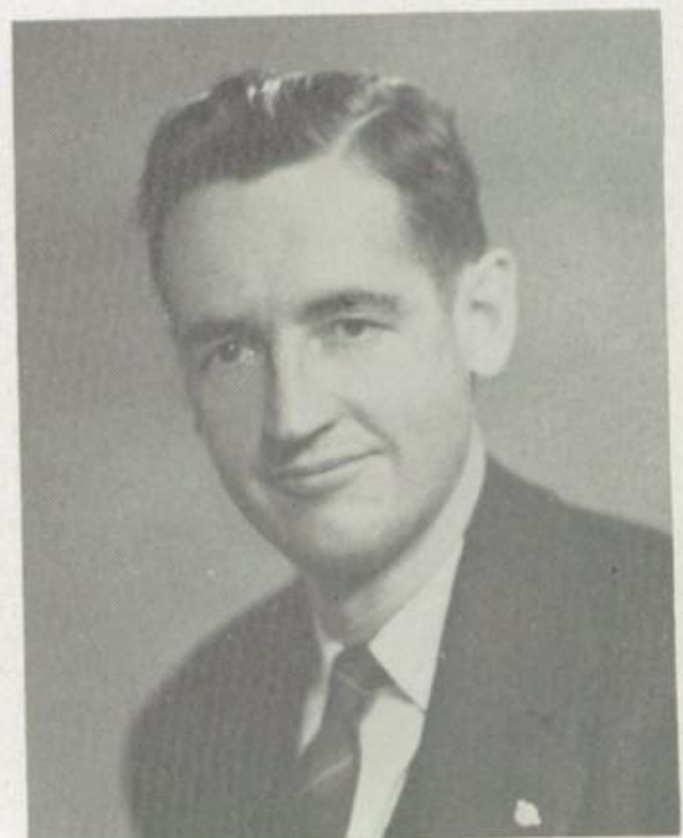

MR. HUGH PERKINS

All plays have their critics, both while in production and on opening night. The school administrator is charged with the responsibility of helping to shape things in such a way that when the curtain finally goes up and the graduates step out onto the stage of life each one will star in his part as an alert, intelligent citizen in a living democracy.

MR. MARTIN A. HELFER

Shakespeare said, "All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players." We hope that what you have learned here in your training for your part on the world's stage will serve you in good stead when you enter the larger drama of adult living. Our highest aspiration as your guides in learning how to live will be measured by the richness of mind and heart with which you play your part in life.

Senior Advisers

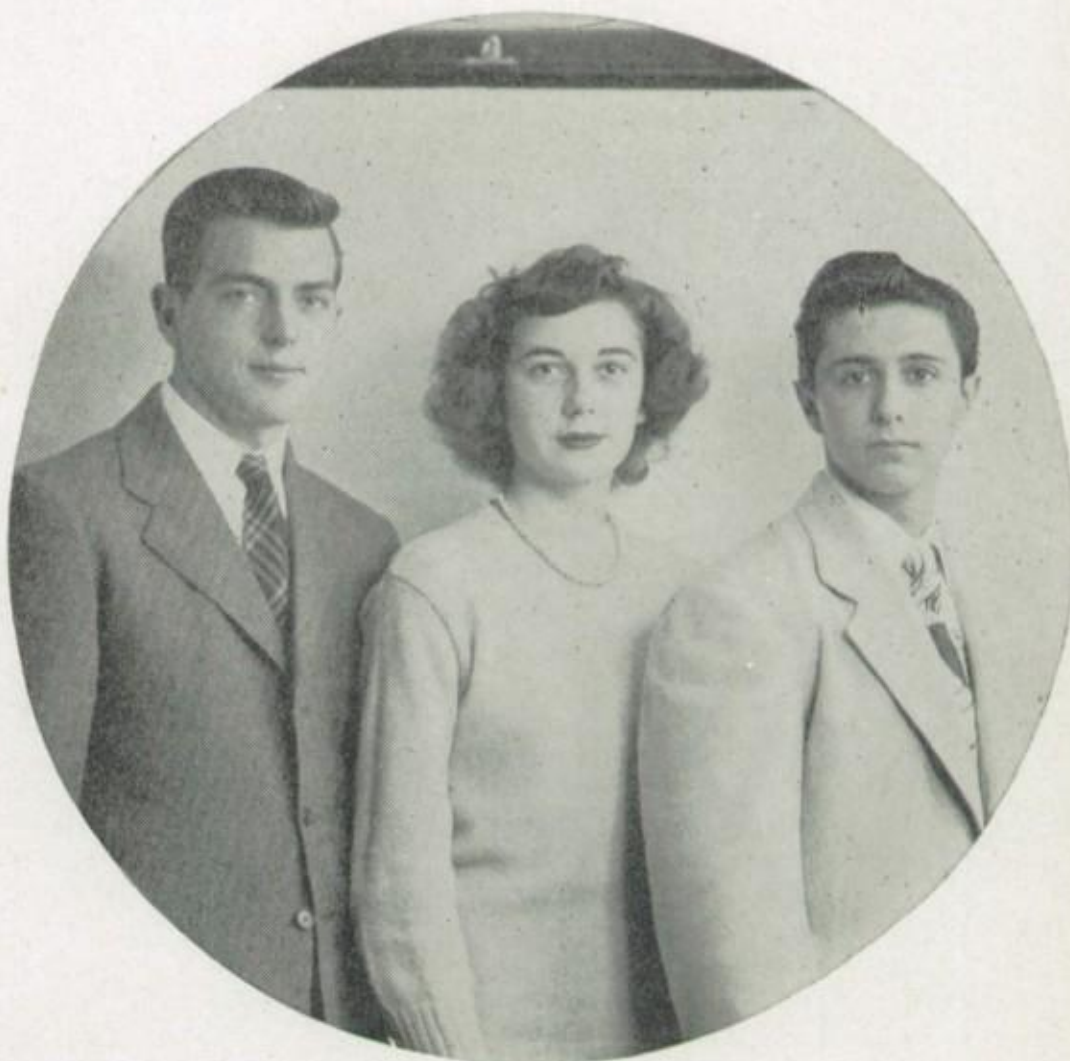

Seated: Frances M. Mahoney, Jean I. George. Standing: Hazel B. Tamblin, James T. MacFarlane, Winnifred Ramsdell.

Much of the credit for the success of this senior class should be given to our senior advisers, who helped us throughout the year. Miss Mahoney (unable to stay away any longer) returned this year to become head adviser for all senior projects. Mr. McFarland, newest faculty member, showed enthusiasm in all senior projects, and helped greatly with the Senior plays. Miss George was again adviser for the "Tatler," and director of one of the Senior plays. Miss Ramsdell's ready smile and helping hand were invaluable, while Miss Tamblin's aid resulted in a newspaper that we will well remember. We seniors certainly owe a debt of gratitude to these people.

Senior Officers

Having been led successfully (both socially and financially) through 1946 by our class officers, it is only fair that they now be given the spotlight. Joe Cutry, with his powers of oratory, proved more than an able director for our production, while Armand Beaudoin, in the role of stage manager, proved his finesse in seeing to all the details. Nor can Mary Ellen Robinson evade the limelight, for we know that her management of the box office was indispensable.

The Harvest Ball, the Senior plays, the Sno-Ball—these were merely a few of the performances engineered by these three, in their efforts to bring us to "stardom." Thus we, the Class of 1946, say with gratitude to our officers, "Take a bow."

Armand Beaudoin, Mary Ellen Robinson, Joseph Cutry.

Stellar Roles

With a four-year average of 94.97, Shirley Lanoue has achieved the honor of being valedictorian of the Class of 1946. Editor-in-Chief of our yearbook, Shirley has always done her best in aiding class undertakings. We know that she will do equally as well in her future work.

Bettie Perkins, our salutatorian, ranks second highest in our class with an average of 94.20. She has been active in class activities, serving as Business Manager of the "Tatler," and she was a member of the Senior play cast. Her pleasing personality has made her a warm friend in our class.

Shirley Lanoue, Bettie Perkins.

Honor Students

In addition to the valedictorian and salutatorian, the Class of 1946 has twelve students who have shown high scholastic ability, achieving an average of 90 per cent or above. In the cases of the first three of these honor students and the two top honor winners, there has been one of the closest races ever run here in MHS involving high averages. These honor students are: Ann Sutton, 94.17; Barbara Ward, 94.06; Ethel Becker, 94.00; Mary Tredo, 93.5; Elizabeth Smith, 92.97; Virginia Robillard, 92.7; Franklin Holcomb, 92.1; Mary H. McCarthy, 91.24; Shirley Sheets, 91.2; Irene Schwartzkopf, 90.53; Patricia Trombino, 90.53; and Robert Peach, 90.0.

He received his training at Camp Swift, Texas; Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri; Camp San Luis Obispo, California; and Camp George Meade, Maryland. He participated in the campaigns of Northern France, the Rhine River, Central Europe, the Ardennes. He was wounded twice, once on December 11, 1944 and again on March 21, 1945. At the time he received his discharge November 4, 1945, he was a sergeant in the 134th Infantry Division of the United States Army. He was awarded the Purple Heart, the ETO Ribbon, the Good Conduct Medal, American Defense Ribbon, Victory Ribbon, and the Combat Badge. Albert returned to our Senior Class five days after he received his discharge, and we are proud to consider him a member of the Class of 1946.

With the coming of Fall the curtain rose on those famous stars, the Red Raiders. Featured players were Captain Gilbert Granger, Bob Bach, Charlie Barbour, Haig Bogosian, and Delbert Silmsen. With the aid of Director James Long and an outstanding supporting cast they were able to obtain again the Northern New York Scholastic Football League Championship.

In their first appearance for the 1945 season, the Raiders gave a superb performance by defeating Potsdam. Canton was defeated in a climatic game on Priest Field, and the following week brought another victory, this time over O. F. A. The next game was one that was looked forward to by everyone. Our stars faced Tupper Lake, the winners of the 1944 championship. Tupper was scored upon better than a point a minute and the team added another victory to their list. They next appeared with Malone, and the following week, with Gouverneur, coming out on top in both games. The last league game of the season was played with Saranac Lake, and the team ended another undefeated season.

Letter winners were Captain Gilbert Granger, Carmen Allen, Anthony Almasian, Robert Bach, Vartkes Baratian, Charles Barbour, Haig Bogosian, Andre Boisvert, Armand Bourdon, Dominic Catanzarite, Reginald Cross, Eugene Emond, Jim Evans, Robert Fiacco, Richard Kirkey, Joe Kry-

Four members of the team were placed on the Central New York All-Star Team by the Herald-Journal. Our captain, Gilbert Granger, was named on the first team as right halfback. Haig Bogosian and Charlie Barbour were named guard and center, respectively, on the second team. Bob Bach, who played end, was named in that position on third team.

With such an honorable record behind them, we, the Class of 1946, are confident that those remaining from this victorious team will help carry on in the future the traditional Massena spirit and effort which was so ably exhibited by the 1945 team. May the future hold many encores of their successful performance.

Basketball

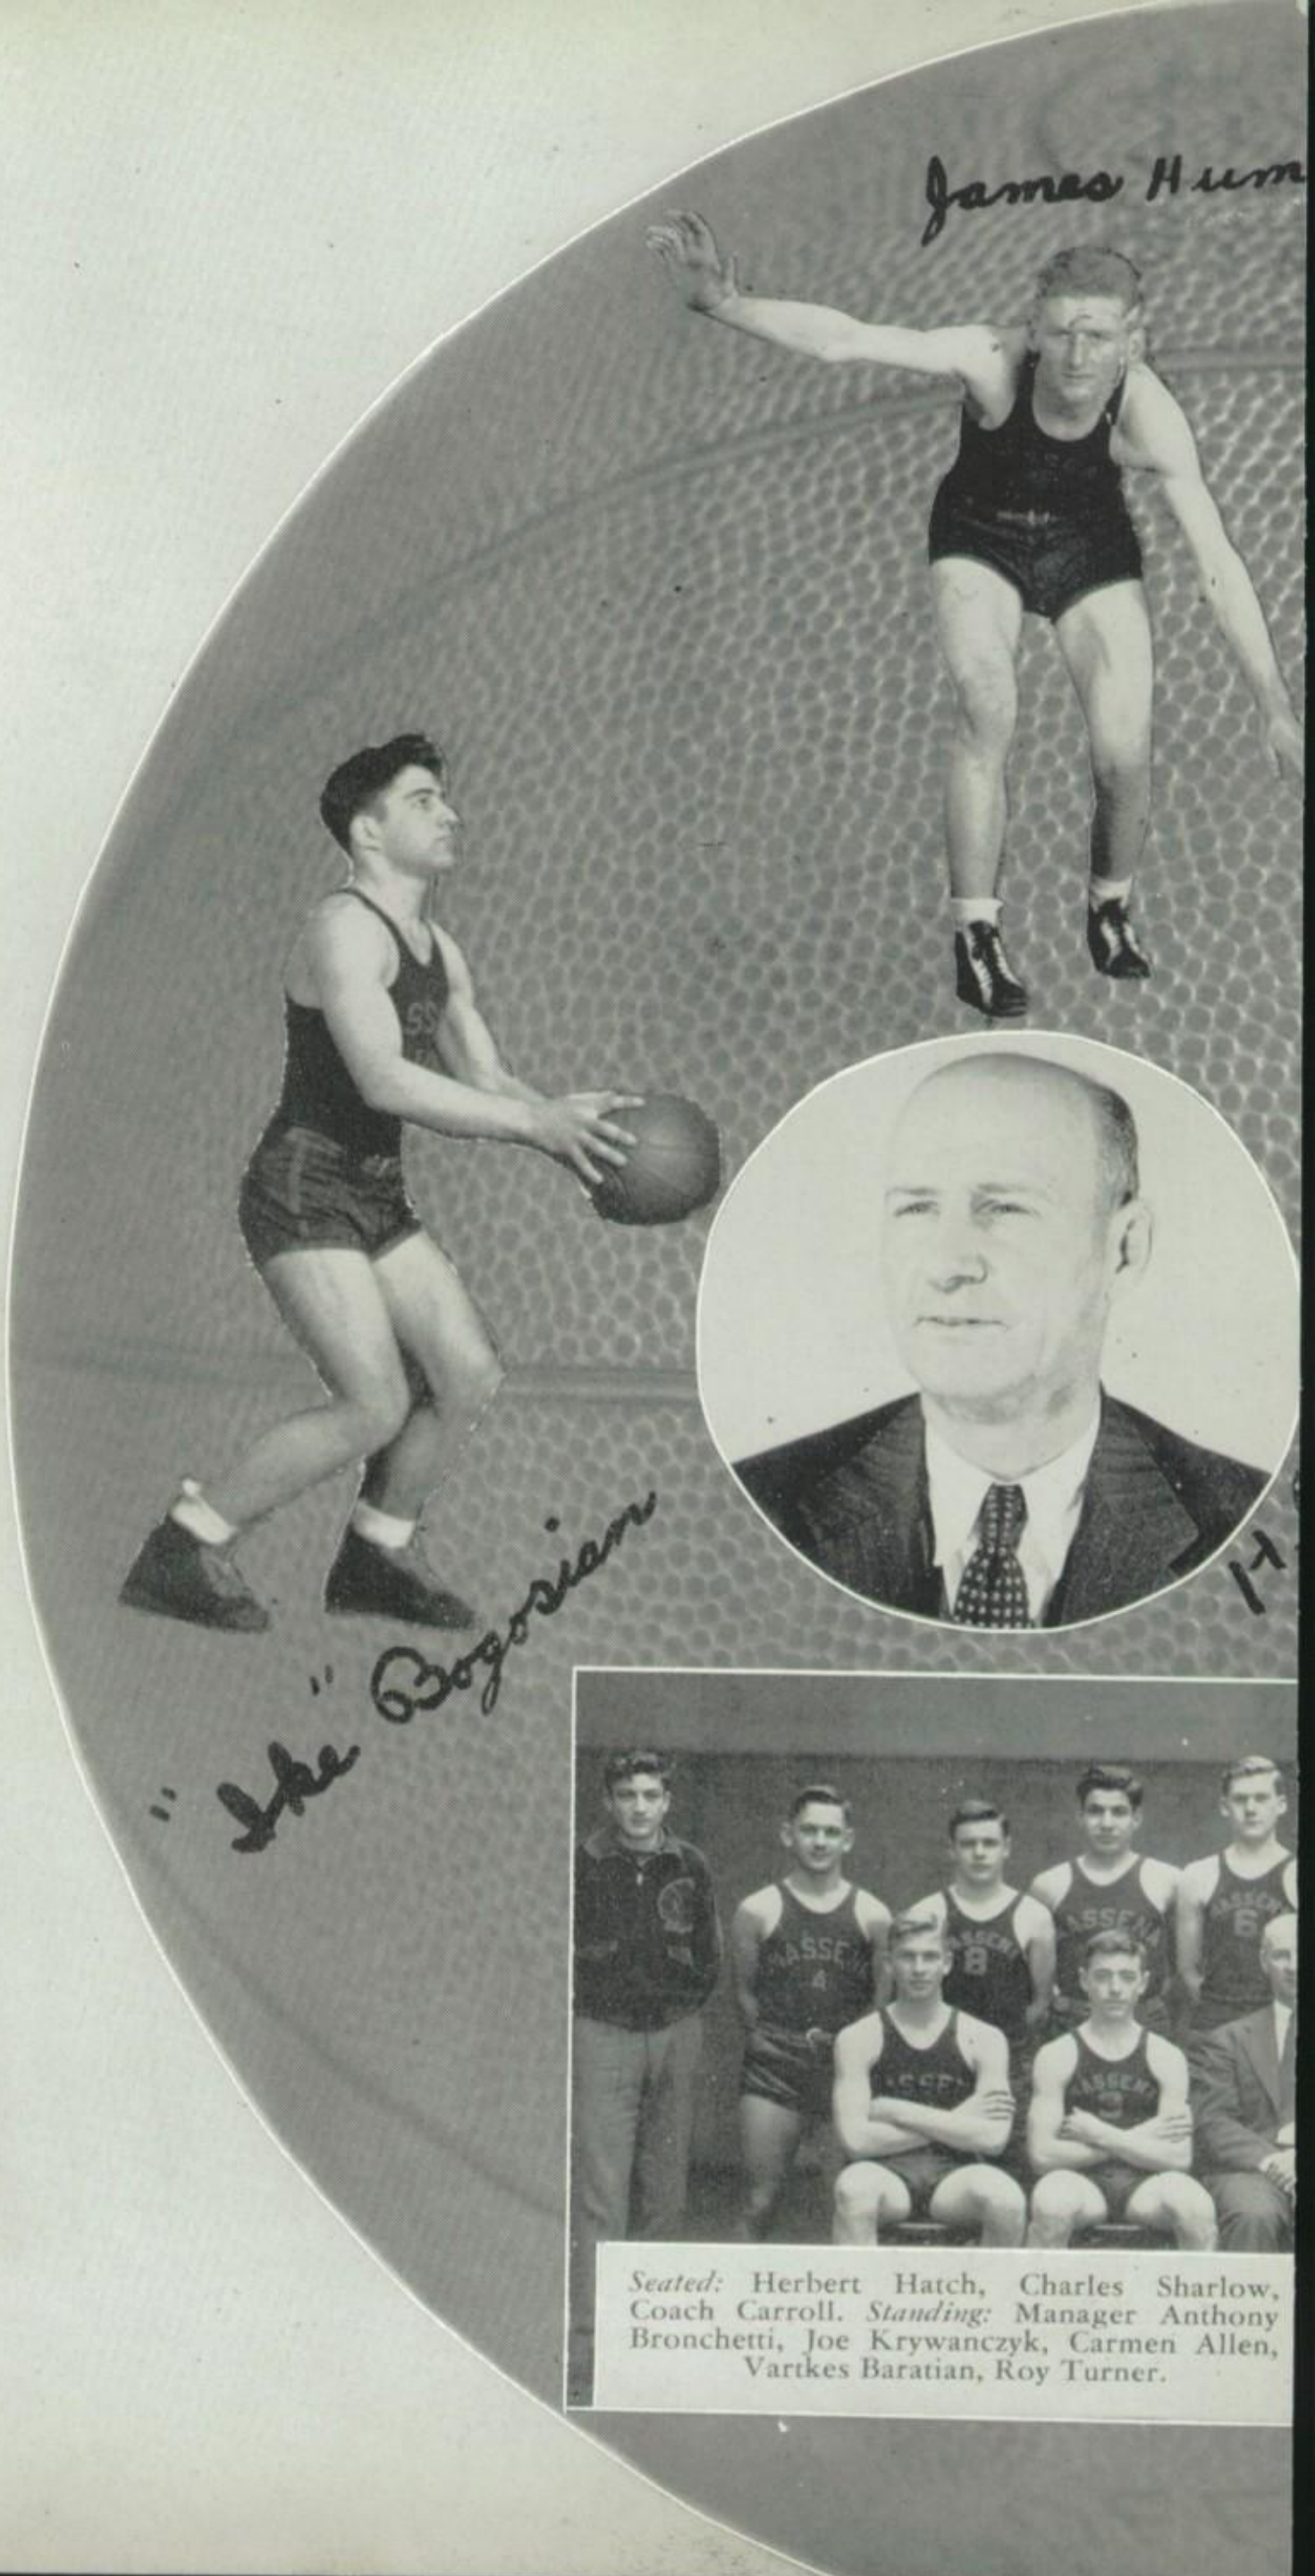

As the curtain rose on that popular sport, basketball, the spotlight was immediately focused on the all-important quintet to be formed from a squad with no veterans from the preceding year. So, Mr. Carroll went to work with his new recruits.

The first performance, staged in our theater, was won for Malone by one basket! And in their first out-of-town game in Gouverneur, the Raiders suffered their worst defeat of the entire season. Pulling out of this slump, our players won the next two games, first at home against Tupper Lake, by one point, and at Canton by one basket! But disaster struck again, this time in the form of an all-conquering Ogdensburg quintet which journeyed here belligerently and left triumphantly. Rallying as much strength as possible, the Raiders attempted a come-back, but Saranac Lake went home—victorious by one point! And characteristically, Massena lost at Norwood by the now-traditional one basket.

But now the tables were turned—at least slightly. The Raiders counteracted their initial defeat by beating their one-basket conquerors, Malone, you guessed it—by one basket!

Yet on the heels of this build-up came another crushing defeat when Potsdam beat us by more than twenty points. However, the quintet returned home still fighting, and in its turn, Canton went home, again defeated.

Then—shades of Shakespeare—tragedy stalked the stage. The Raiders lost the next three games. The first one was played and lost at Ogdensburg, the second at home to Potsdam, and the third at Saranac Lake. The only consolation lay in the fact that Potsdam defeated our Raiders by only one-fifth of its former winning margin.

Yet the spirit of M. H. S. was never defeated as the squad proved by decisively beating Tupper Lake in the home theater and then, just as decisively beating Norwood in their theater.

Nor can we overlook the part played by the Junior Varsity under the direction of Coach Ehle. They did themselves credit by winning exactly half of the games in which they participated.

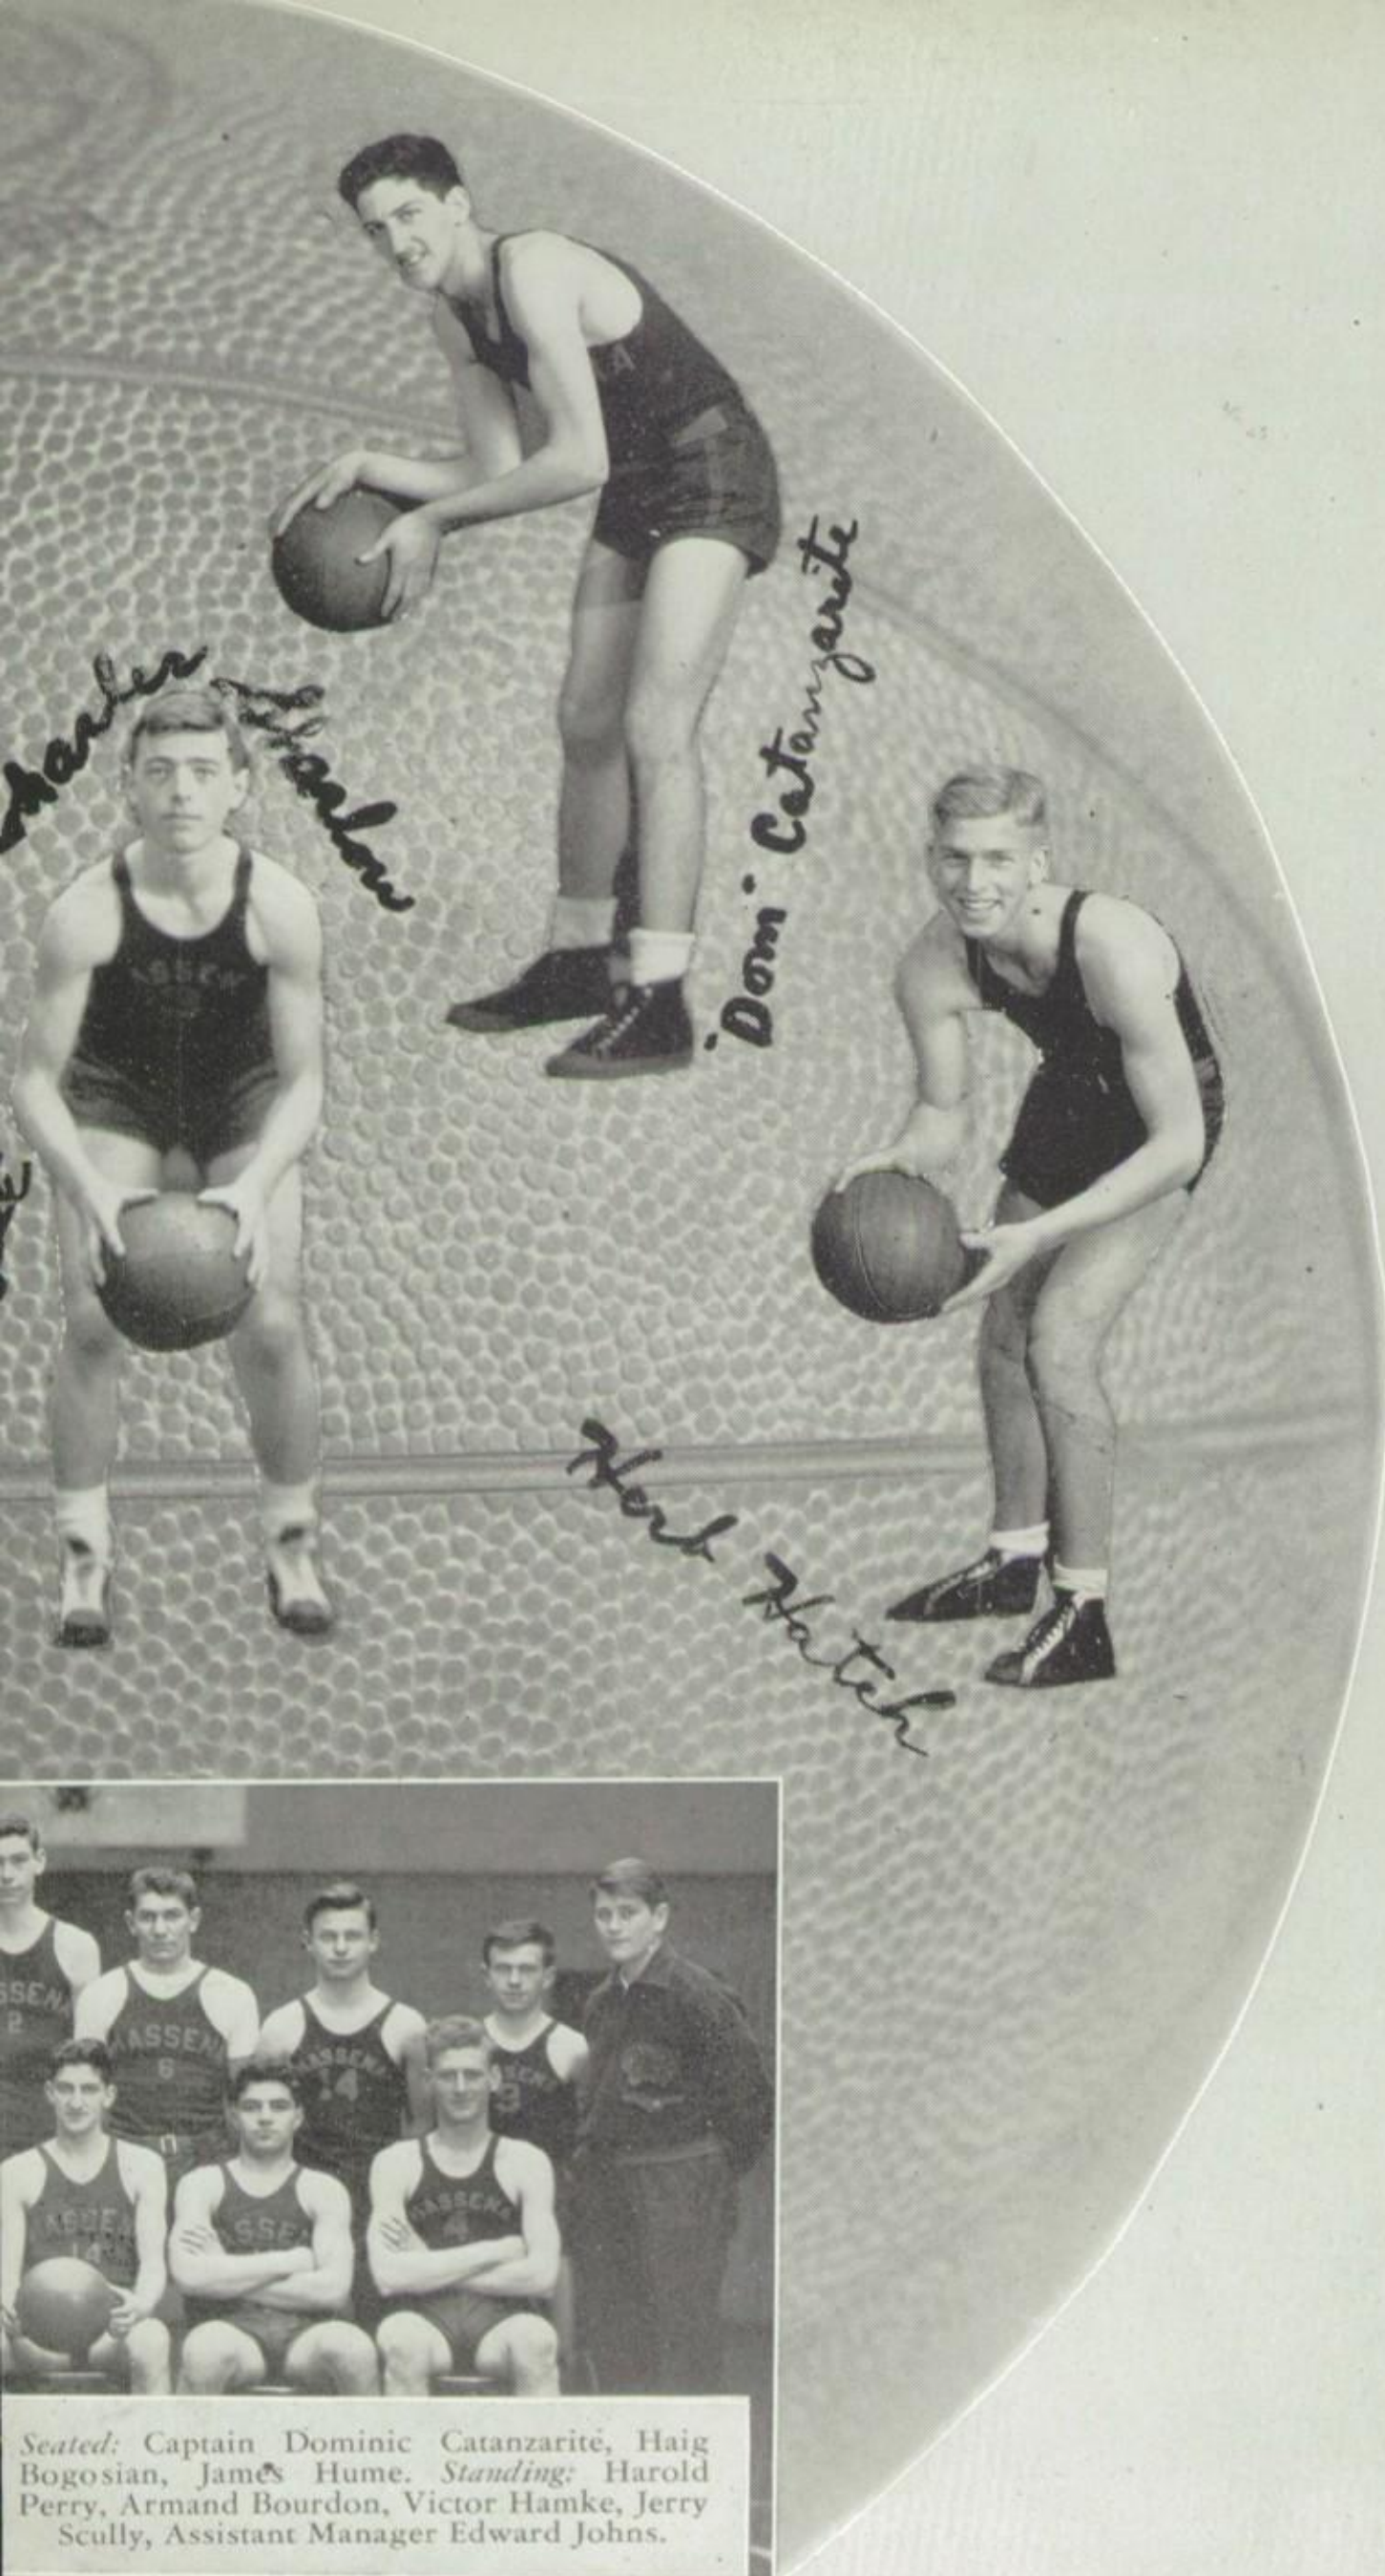

Thus the bitterness of defeat and the sweetness of victory combined to make this year a memorable one to us—not a tragedy and not a comedy, but a year symbolic of life itself.

Track

COACH LONG

The 1945 track company started off with a bang, with Wistar Hatch in the leading role as captain. Directing the cast was Coach Long, with Jerry Baird and Richard Schnacke as his assistants.

As a preview, a home-town performance was staged with the Seniors and Juniors as co-stars. The Seniors emerged as the victorious "heroes," while the Juniors were the defeated "villains." Next, another rehearsal in the local theater was staged—this time with our Red Raiders pitted against Malone. Triumphant, the Raiders starred as the heroes.

The season started in earnest, with the daring Red Raider "stars" always defeating the opposing "villains"—first Potsdam, then Gouverneur, and finally Ogdensburg—all performances being held in the local theater.

Even at the second largest theater in the circuit, the Van Dusen at Ogdensburg, they were again the victors. Not only were they victorious, but they piled up the greatest number of points ever to be made there in any performance!

This was climaxed by the tremendous ovation with which they were acclaimed the champions at the sectional theater at Lake Placid.

Thus ended one of the most successful circuits which the Massena Red Raider "Stars" ever played in their annual season. Curtain!

Cross Country

After an absence of three years, Cross Country returned to Massena High School. Under the direction of Jerome Baird, the team participated in four meets.

The first was the Thomas R. Proctor Invitation Interscholastic Cross Country Run at Utica. Out of thirteen teams, Massena placed seventh. The next meet was held in Syracuse. This was another invitational meet, and Massena placed fourth out of eight teams. The Syracuse War Memorial meet followed in two weeks, and Massena came in thirteenth out of twenty-one teams. The only dual meet of the season was the last meet which was with Watertown. The Massena team was defeated by a score of 33-22.

Hockey

CAPTAIN GILBERT GRANGER and COACH ROBERT CALNON

Hockey, one of the three varsity sports put away for the duration of World War II, came into the spotlight during the 1946 season. After an absence of three years, Coach Calnon returned to continue his work on the faculty and as coach of the hockey team. He coached his last hockey team to championship in the '41-'42 season.

Helping him as assistant coach was Albert "Babe" Giroux, a veteran who had recently returned to school. The managers of the club were James Gillespie and William Smith.

The season started with Massena playing a winning game at Saranac Lake. The next game was also with Saranac Lake, this time on the home rink, and again we won. Then the Red Raiders challenged the Potsdam "Sandstoners," and came home victorious. The return game with Potsdam was played and won by the Raiders on their home rink.

Following this was the Lake Placid tournament, in which we reached the semi-finals by defeating Saranac Lake, but lost the last game of the season to Clinton.

The Girls' Athletic Association, better known as just the "G. A. A.," was one of the most active groups in MHS. Supervised by Miss Eleanor Hoy and Miss Dorothy Dawley, the club had the following officers: Shirley Lanoue, President; Barbara MacIntyre, Vice-President; Julia Gabri, Secretary; and Mary Ellen Robinson, Treasurer.

At regular business meetings, held on the first Tuesday of each month, confidential matters were discussed. And on activity nights, which were every other Thursday, the girls played basketball, volleyball, ping-pong or badminton in the girls' gym. Softball and bicycle trips, weather permitting, were also enjoyed.

Block "M's" were awarded to those girls who earned 275 points by regularly attending the business meetings and activity nights.

As an extra activity, the G. A. A. sponsored a movie to which the entire student body was invited. Characteristically, the title was "Play Volleyball!"

"Curtain going up!" these words have the same meaning to a group of actors about to present a play that "Yearbooks are out!" has to a staff of yearbook members. In many ways these two groups of people are comparable. Actors are guided by one person, who in turn is supported by a board of directors; a yearbook staff is guided by its editor and business manager, who in turn are supported by advisers from the faculty of the school. The actors are divided into major and minor roles; the staff of a yearbook has leaders in different departments who share the responsibilities with their helpers. In the theater a play must be mounted well, and that achievement means a good crew of stage technicians; so the Tatler of '46 finds its group of fine technicians in the typists, photographers and proof readers, and its pages are adorned with the results of the art staff, guided by Mr. Hugaboom.

To the Tatler Staff of '46, the publishing of this yearbook is an accomplishment to which we point with pride. We know that to every Tatler Staff its book must have been the best. To the Tatler Staff of '46, this seems the best yearbook because it is ours by right of planning, toil, and achievement. We hope our judgment coincides with that of our readers. If the memories of this year of your school life are pleasantly renewed each time you scan the pages of this book which we present to you, then our purpose will have been achieved.

After the call "on stage," the batons began to twirl as the band marched through the football season. Miss Jayne successfully led the band until Mr. Robb returned in November.

Eight members of the band played in the All-State Band at Pulaski, while the entire concert band participated in a preliminary concert in March, the Instrumental Music Department Concert, the General Music Department Concert, and the May Festival at Potsdam.

The band also played at basketball games, assemblies, and other school activities.

The curtain rose, then the orchestra began the overture for "This Year" at the opening broadcast of Massena's radio station. Under the direction of Miss Leah Jayne, with Andre Boisvert as concert master, the orchestra added a musical touch to many local gatherings, including the football and Knights of Columbus banquets, and American Legion program and a Lions' Club dinner. Other activities of "This Year's" orchestra included Christmas music, three concerts, and incidental music at the Junior and Senior plays. The grand finale was the baccalaureate.

Wood Winds—Natalie Smythe, Penny Kassian, Esther Peters, Jean Squires, William Smith, Mildred Johns, Jacqueline Raymo, Julia Gabri.

The Boys' Glee Club, newly organized this year, gave several excellent performances. They sang in assembly on December 7, provided entertainment at the Football Banquet, and took part in the Spring Concert and the Potsdam Festival.

"Grandma Pulls the String"

"Grandma Pulls the String," a one-act comedy directed by Miss Cole, depicted the obstacles that a young man must surmount while endeavoring to propose.

The audience's enjoyment increased as Bill Thornton (George Strader) attempted to propose to Julia (Bettie Perkins) in the presence of Hildegard (Patricia Musot), Julia's romantic, ten-year-old sister, and Grandma Blessington (Arline Sullivan) who insisted "that anything worth doing at all was worth doing right." Grandma coached from her wheel-chair and conveniently dropped her yarn at the most inappropriate moments. Bill, however, finally accomplished his purpose to the satisfaction of Julia, Hildegard, Grandma, Julia's mother, played by Ann Sutton, and elder sister, played by Dora Boyer.

Stage Properties—Seated: M. Ferency, L. Premo, A. Portolese, E. L. Sutter. Standing: G. Nadeau, F. Kruth, J. Carlin, M. Johns, K. Fitzpatrick.

Seated: Victor Hamke, Esther Peters, Dominic Zappia, Ethel Becker, Armand Beaudoin. Standing: Jane Besio, Mary Dywan, Elmor Lytle, Marjorie McHugh, Marion Ward.

"The Pampered Darling"

Will we ever forget "The Pampered Darling," that one-act comedy directed by Miss George? Remember how "dear" Victor (Dominic Zappia) tried to prevent his older sisters, Connie (Esther Peters) and Janet (Ethel Becker), from attending a house-party by revealing to Mrs. Perkins, the housekeeper (Jane Besio), that he had become deaf and dumb!

Only the threat of an operation by Janet's fiance, Norman (Armand Beaudoin), and his roommate, alias the Doctor (Victor Hamke), finally induced Victor to speak. . . . And remember Connie's boy-friend Dudley (Elmor Lytle), who always said the wrong thing at the right time, and the mock operation with bloodthirsty Annabelle (Marjorie McHugh), squeaky Jessica (Mary Dywan), Joy (Marion Ward) and Floyd (John Gibson) as the very interested spectators and assistants?
